This is referring to the fact that He was there among them, but they would not recognize Him as their Messiah.

JESUS AGAIN CLEANSSES THE TEMPLE (Matthew 21:10-17; Mark 11:11; 15-19; Luke 19:45-48)

Once again Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves (Matthew 21:12).

1. At the beginning of His ministry, Jesus did a temple cleansing. Give this Scripture reference. (Study Guide p. 40) _____

In Isaiah 56:7, Isaiah prophesied, For mine house shall be called a house of prayer for all people.

2. In Matthew 21:13 Jesus said unto them, It is written,

So Jesus made it a house of prayer, for the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple and He healed them (Matthew 21:14).

THIRTY SECOND STUDY

LAST PUBLIC MINISTRY

TRIUMPHAL ENTRY (Matthew 21:1-9; Mark 11:1-10; Luke 19:29-40; John 12:12-19)

From Bethany, Jesus sent two of His disciples into a neighboring village to secure an ass and her colt of which He said they would find tied there. It was a young colt upon which a man had never sat.

They were to advise the owner that the Lord hath need of them (Matthew 21:3b).

It looked as if the hour of His ascending to the throne of His father, David, had arrived, and the people thrilled at what they considered was their approaching deliverance from the domination of Rome.

5. What did the Pharisees say among themselves? (John 12:19)_____

6. What do you think they meant by that?_____

The Pharisees were worried the Romans would come and take away their place out of the nation. So rather than have their “place” taken from them, they decided that as soon as possible they would put Jesus to death. They also decided to try and persuade Him to stop the shouts and praises of the people.

7. What was Jesus’ answer to their request? (Luke 19:40)_____

It is only right that those who worship the Lord should cry out and shout His praises!

JESUS WEEPS OVER JERUSALEM (Luke 19:41-44)

As Jesus and the multitudes passed over the crest of the hill, Jesus beheld the city from the crest of the hill, and burst into tears. He was not weeping for the prospect of suffering and death which was soon to come, but for the terrible crime this city was about to commit, and also for the awful punishment the Jews would soon speak over themselves and their generations to come.

There was presented to them “a better way”, But the spiritual blindness of the leaders of Jerusalem prevented them from being conscious of it.

The view of Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives was in sharp contrast to the Master’s mood of lamentation. The magnificent Temple, the palaces and gardens of the wealthy Jews, and the great wall encircling the city made the view one of beauty and splendor. Add to this the memories associated with more than a thousand years of sacred history, and one envisions a sight which would all but overwhelm the pious Jew seeing Jerusalem for the first time. But all of this moved Jesus only to tears. He saw something others did not see

1. What did Jesus say as He wept over Jerusalem? (Luke 19:42)_____

This was grief to Jesus’ heart. Jesus was charging them with unbelief.

In verses 43, 44, Jesus gave a prophecy over Jerusalem that their enemies would encircle them and overwhelm them, and level the city. This was done by Titus who commanded the soldiers to destroy the city. They leveled it except for three towers.
