

THIRD STUDY INSERT

HISTORY OF THE TWO KINGDOMS

1. After the death of King Solomon (1 Kings 11:43), Rehoboam , his son reigned.
2. The prophet Ahijah had prophesied over Jeroboam in 1Kings 11:28-39 who was ruler over all the forced labor of the house of Jacob that because Solomon had led the people into idolatry in his old age, God was going to give him ten of the tribes (1Kings 11:31,33).
3. Rehoboam was cruel to the people and the division came because he would not make the load lighter for those of the forced labor. So Jeroboam led people them into rebellion and was made their king (1Kings 12:16,17,20). Those 10 Northern Tribes were called Israel.
4. Rehoboam then had two tribes left: Judah and Benjamin, they were the Southern Tribes and were called Judah.
5. There were two kingdoms of Israel for 260 years (1 Kings 12:16-20)

THIRD STUDY INSERT

HISTORY OF THE TWO KINGDOMS

1. After the death of King Solomon (1 Kings 11:43), Rehoboam , his son reigned.
2. The prophet Ahijah had prophesied over Jeroboam in 1Kings 11:28-39 who was ruler over all the forced labor of the house of Jacob that because Solomon had led the people into idolatry in his old age, God was going to give him ten of the tribes (1Kings 11:31,33).
3. Rehoboam was cruel to the people and the division came because he would not make the load lighter for those of the forced labor. So Jeroboam led people them into rebellion and was made their king (1Kings 12:16,17,20). Those 10 Northern Tribes were called Israel.
4. Rehoboam then had two tribes left: Judah and Benjamin, they were the Southern Tribes and were called Judah.
5. There were two kingdoms of Israel for 260 years (1 Kings 12:16-20)