HEROD MURDERS JOHN THE BAPTIST

(Matthew 14:3-12; Mark 6:14-29)

Herod had an opportunity for salvation, but rejected it, in his private conversations with John. It was his birthday, and he gave a great supper, and invited his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee. The daughter of the wicked Herodias danced before the party, and Herod offered to give her whatever she would ask: up to half of his kingdom. She quickly consulted with her mother and asked for the head of John the Baptist. Herod considered his oath to be more important than the life of a righteous prophet of God. So John was executed.
