

Peter intensely insisted though, that he would rather die than deny his Lord (Matthew 26:35).

CHANGED ORDERS (Luke 22:35-38)

Jesus was giving last minute instructions to His disciples. He had previously sent them out on temporary missions to heal and preach and prepare the way before him, in which they enjoyed their Master's popularity. They lacked nothing, though they took no provisions with them. All was provided as they moved among the people.

They would now share His disgrace as they had shared His popularity. He would soon, no longer be with them. They must go out on a lifetime mission into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.

Just as they had lacked nothing in their previous experience, He would provide for them again. However, they were to take with them such personal equipment as they had.

FINAL WORDS OF COMFORT AND ENCOURAGEMENT (John 14:1-31)

Jesus' message of comfort was twofold:

1. What are the two main points in John 14:1-31?

(2) _____

Jesus reassures and encourages His disciples with these words. This is the first mention of the Rapture of the Church. Until this took place, He would in the meantime send the Holy Spirit, the Comforter to be their teacher and remind them of the words Jesus spoke to them. This Comforter, in reality, would be the Gift of the Father, the Holy Ghost, the third person of the blessed Trinity. The Holy Spirit's mission to teach them all things and bring to their remembrance whatsoever Christ had spoken unto them is how we, today, have the record of the very words which Jesus spoke to His disciples when on earth.

2. What is the true source of peace? (John 14:27)

3. What did Jesus say hinders that peace? (John 14:27) _____

4. What was Jesus speaking of in John 14:31?
