

INSERT - FORTY FOURTH STUDY
LIFE OF CHRIST

12 AFTER RESURRECTION APPEARANCES
OF CHRIST:

1. Mary Magdalene (Mark 16:9; John 20:15-16)
2. Women at the tomb (Matthew 28:9)
3. Peter (Luke 24:34; I Corinthians 15:5)
4. Two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-31)
5. The ten (John 20:19-24; on the same evening of Jesus' Resurrection; possibly in the upper-room; Thomas absent; He breathed on them and said unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: [They received the new birth])
6. The eleven (John 20:26; 8 days after Resurrection; Thomas present)
7. The seven; (John 21:1-22; after the second Sunday; at the Sea of Tiberias or Sea of Galilee; the miraculous Christ-directed 153 fish catch which represents 153 nations at that time; Jesus cooks for the 7; Peter questioned by Jesus; prophecy of Peter's death; Peter questions Jesus about John)
8. The eleven on a certain mountain in Galilee (Matthew 28:16)
9. The twelve, including Matthias (I Corinthians 15:5; Acts 1:26)
10. 500 brethren at once (I Corinthians 15:6)
11. James, the Lord's brother (I Corinthians 15:7;

Galatians 1:19)

12. All the Apostles (I Corinthians 15:7; Mark 16:15-20; Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:3-12,26)

- Note - There was an appearance in Mark 16:14 of which no one knows for sure when it happened. It is believed this took place on the day of the Lord's Resurrection. If this is so, there were only 10 disciples present. This is when Christ gave them rebuke. If this is so this verse should be added to Appearance number 5.
- Still, they might be called the eleven, because the apostolic college was reduced to eleven after the betrayal by Judas; so they might still be called the eleven, although Thomas was absent.¹
