

1. In Luke 10:22, Jesus said, All _____ are delivered to _____ of My _____: and no man _____ who the _____ is, but the _____: and who the _____ is, but the _____, and he to whom the _____ will _____.

JESUS TAUNTED BY HIS BRETHREN

(John 7:1-9)

It was coming time for the annual "Feast of Tabernacles". The Jews were looking for a chance to kill Jesus, so He didn't want to travel in Judea. His brother's said to Him, "Why don't You go up to the feast so Your disciples there can get a good look at the works You do? If You are serious about what You are doing, come show it to the world." This revealed that His brothers did not yet believe He was the Messiah.

1. What did Jesus answer them in John 7:6? _____

2. What do you think He meant by, My time is not yet come? _____
3. Who did Jesus heal in Luke 17:11-19? _____

Jesus passed along the border through the midst of Samaria and Galilee toward His final destination, Jerusalem. It was a complex evangelistic and teaching ministry.

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

(Luke 10:25-37)

Be prepared to tell this sweet and wonderful story in your own words.

TWENTY THIRD STUDY

LAST GALILEAN MINISTRY

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP (Matthew 8:18-22; Luke 9:57-62)

Jesus was a strenuous worker, yet He realized His disciples must, at times, get away from the great multitudes that thronged Him, constantly (Matthew 8:18). So He ordered a departure to ...the other side...to the shore of the Lake of Galilee, where they could have a period of quiet rest.

1. In Luke 9:57, a certain man said unto Him, Lord, I will follow Thee wherever You go. What did Jesus say to him in verse 58? _____

Although used 83 times in the Gospels, this is the first place "the Son of man" appears (v58). Here Jesus made it clear that anyone who would wish to follow Him for earthly gain would be disappointed. - In other words, "Count the cost".

2. What did another man want to do before following Jesus? (Luke 9:59) _____

This was a poor excuse; the dead were buried on the same day of their death and no one would be following a teacher that day. Personally, I believe this man wanted to go back home until the time of his father's future death, and then he would follow Jesus.

It's no wonder Jesus reprimanded the man by informing him that his present call was more important than anything else; even his duties as the son of the family.

3. What do you think Jesus knew about the third man, that would be the danger of him going back to tell those at home "goodbye," in Luke 9:62 (Study Guide, this page). _____

Jesus knew that if the third man returned home, he would likely submit to the unbelieving relatives who would weep, reproach, and ridicule, and tempt him to give up such an idea.

4. What do you think was the main point Jesus was trying to get across to all three would-be disciples? _____

SEVENTY SENT FORTH (Luke 10:1-12)

The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them forth. He chose the original 12; but appointed these healers and preachers (Ref. Acts 1:23).

1. Jesus commissioned them with these instructions. (Mark correct statements - Luke 10:2-9)
- (a) The harvest is great, but the laborers are few.
 - (b) Pray to the Lord that He will send laborers.
 - (c) I send you forth as lambs among wolves.
 - (d) Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes.
 - (e) Salute no man on the way (Ref. 2 Kings 4:29).

- (f) When you enter a house speak peace over it.
- (g) Remain in the same house.
- (h) Stay from house to house if you like.
- (i) Eat what is set before you.
- (j) Heal the sick.
- (k) Say, "The kingdom of God is come nigh you."

2. What did Jesus tell them to say over a city if they did not receive them? (Luke 10:11) _____

3. In Luke 10:13-15, Jesus predicted judgment on 3 unbelieving cities. Name them. _____

SEVENTY RETURN: POWER OVER SATAN PROMISED (Luke 10:17-24; Matthew 11:25-30)

With joy, the seventy returned with a great report, Saying, Lord, the devils are subject unto us through Thy name. They were surprised at their power.

1. Jesus told them not to rejoice because the spirits are subject unto you. What did He tell them to rejoice in? (Luke 10:20) _____

In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit over the simplicity of truth, and thanked His Father that He had hid these from the wise and prudent; and revealed them unto babes (Luke 10:21).
