_____, and the _____ .
5. How does Paul describe these Corinthians? (I Corinthians 1:26) _____

No! God uses the foolish things of this world to confound the wise, and the base things of the world and the things that are despised, has God chosen, yes, and things which are not, to bring to nothing things that are: That no flesh should glory in His presence (I Corinthians 1:27-29).

Only in Christ can we experience true wisdom, riches, and power. We are nothing without Him, and we can do nothing without Him. For Christ is the Christian's wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and Redemption (I Corinthians 1:30).

6. According to I Corinthians 1:31, if we are going to glory, who are we to glory in? _____
